RECEIVED FROM
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

ELI P. BABCOCK, of Avoca, N. Y., a veteran of the 3rd N. Y. Artillery and for thirty years of the Babcock & Munsell Carriage Co., of Auburn, says: "I write to express my gratitude for the miraculous benefit received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I suffered for years, as result of army life, from sciatica which affected my heart in the worst form, my limbs swelled from the ankles up. I bloated until I was unable to button my clothing; had sharp pains about the heart, smothering spells and shortness of breath. For three months I was unable to lie down, and all the sleep I got was in an arm chair. I was treated by the best doctors but gradually grew worse. About a year ago I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and it saved my life as if by a miracle."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

by the latter Monday afternoon. In his reply General Toral referred to his re-

made on Sunday and again reiterated
his determination to resist.

Notwithstanding this the American batteries did not open fire yesterday and the renewal of the bombardment will

The siege guns landed Monday will

When we read of a railroad wreck in which a hundred people are killed, we are filled with pity and horror. There are other dangers in this life a thousand times greater than that of the railroad wreck, only we do not have them brought so forcibly to our attention. Consumption does not kill a hundred people at once in one train. It does kill tens of thousands for every one that is killed by accident. If a sufferer will resort to the right remedy before it is too late, consumption can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 95 per cent of all cases if taken in the earlier stages. It has maintained this record for thirty years. Many of those whom it has rescued from the verge of the grave have permitted their names, addresses, experiences and photographs to be printed in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This useful book is free, and any sufferer who wishes to investigate may procure it and write to those who were once sufferers themselves.
For a paper covered copy send 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great blood-maker and
flesh-builder. It restores the lost appetite,
corrects the impaired digestion, makes the
liver active and the blood pure. Any medicine dealer who offers you something else said to be "just as good" is thinking about his pocketbook and not about your health.
"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription' with wonderful results," writes Mrs. Annie M. Norman, of Equinunk, Wayne Co., Pa. "I had consumption; the doctors said I'd die. The

now be foolhardy enough to make the attempt.

The Cubans, under General Calixto
Garcia, took Caimanes without opposition Monday night, and have entrenchments on either side of the road. The Americans are now in position to strike
the enemy on the left flank and roll it
up, making the Spanish entrenchments
north of the city untenable.

General Toral realizing the weakness
of this flank, has been busy during the
existence of the truce in doubling back
with entrenchments and fixing his guns
in the direction from which he is threatened. Most of General Ran-
dolph's guns will be located upon the
heights in the center of General Law-
ton's new position where they command
the town.

The Capron and Hanes batteries on
the right have succeeded in tearing up
the emplacements for a "palm" battery
as it is called, and in plunging shells
into several blockhouses on salients, but
the shots directed at the Spaniards in
the trenches did not appear to have
much effect. Shrapnell was rapidly
broken directly over the trenches, yet
in five minutes the trenches at every
point of explosion would be alive with
the enemy. They would watch for the flash of our guns and drop before the shell exploded.

HANGS FIRE.

Spanish Cabinet Crisis—No One Desires
to Serve.
London, July 13.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: "The crisis hangs fire. The ministers still meet in council and the difficulties of
retirement seem even greater than the difficulties of remaining in office. The conservatives are not prepared to accept
office, and it is hard to imagine a liberal cabinet without an undisputed

liberal leader. The logical conclusion
is that Senor Sagasta must accept the responsibility of deciding whether or
not to open peace negotiations.

the President's Instructions.

Washington, July 13.—The impression prevailed in official circles yesterday that the flag of truce set in the Spanish lines at Santiago was still fly-
looking to a surrender. The basis for these negotiations naturally could not
be very broad in view of the injunction
the president laid upon General Shafter
to accept nothing less than unconditional surrender, but it is supposed that
time may be consumed through the indulgence of General Shafter in allowing the Spanish commander to communicate by cable with Captain General Blanco in the effort to obtain his assent to the surrender. General Toral
undoubtedly has before his eyes the
vindictive abuse heaped upon the unfortunate naval commander, Cervera,
for surrendering at all, so that he probably will be bound by the direction of Blanco in his own case.

Officials here have confidence in the
speedy fall of Santiago, though many officials fear that the nest will be found empty and the birds flown when the American troops make their entry into
the town. Still, should this be the case, it may be fairly claimed that the prime object of the movement on Santiago, namely, the destruction of the Spanish squadron having been achieved,
the campaign, as a whole, has been successful.

General Miles' report indicated that he had found unexpected physical difficulties to contend with, and is apparently greatly pleased with the progress
made by the army under the conditions
prevailing. He has not assumed command.

Mines to Be Removed.

The most important result of the cabinet deliberations yesterday was the order to remove the mines which guard
all coast ports. Many military men
were opposed to yielding to the pressure
of the commercial interests and some of them are predicting that not a few of
the communities which have been so
earnest in their demand for the removal of the mines will be frantically
clamoring for protection at the very
first rumor of the presence of a hostile
gunboat or cruiser off their coast.

Before the war began our government accumulated a stock of coal at St.
Thomas, West Indies. Twice since we broke out the United States has availed
of this coal, once to supply the Minneapolis and once the Montgomery, but as
each was bound for the nearest home
port and took only enough coal to carry
them there it was fairly assumed there
had been no breach of neutrality.

It appears that there is now a disposition exhibited by the Danish authorities
to prevent the United States ships from
using this coal and as there is no question of their right to lay down this rule
the coal itself probably will be left alone.

No Peace Overtures.

Although the statement has been repeated day after day that no overtures
have yet been made to our government
for peace it may bear repetition once
more in view of the express denial given
at the state department to so much of
the stories emanating from European
sources as seek to create the impression
that the United States government or
any of its representatives so far has
made any move in this direction. The first overtures in the direction of peace
must come from Spain, directly or indirectly.

THE NAVY'S PROBLEM

Best Manner of Bombard-
ing a City Over
Hill Tops.

SATISFACTORILY SOLVED

By the Brooklyn, Indiana
and Texas at Santi-
ago de Cuba.

ARMY SIGNAL MEN

Kept the Warships Posted as to the Effect of Each Shot in the Range Finding Test at Santiago—Navy Could Destroy the City Without the Aid of the Army—It Is Believed Many Were Killed
in the City—Church Filled With Ammunition Demolished.

Jamaica, July 13.—The United States
navy has the following problem presented to it: What is the best manner
of effectively bombarding a city distant
four and a half miles and concealed
from view by a range of hills 250 feet
high at its lowest part? The problem
has been satisfactorily solved. So, if
the army hereafter never fired a shot
and merely guarded the roads, the navy
could make Santiago untenable, if indeed, it did not totally destroy it in a few days.

Sunday and yesterday the sea was calmer than usual, so the opportunity
for good practice was afforded. In pursuance of General Shafter's request,
Commodore Schley, Rear Admiral
Sampson being absent at Guantanamo,
at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon,
ranged the Brooklyn, Indiana and Texas within 500 yards of the shore, at a point almost due south of the city of Santiago, distant a little over four and a half miles. The ships were about a mile apart.

Signal Men Watched the Effect.
The army signal men were on the
beach opposite the ships and also on the
crest of a hill overlooking both the ships
and the city. These men wig-wagged
the results of each shot, telling the gunners if the shell was aimed too high
or too low, or not in line.

Sunday's practice was good, but it
was better today, when the firing was opened by the New York, which returned from Guantanamo bay during the night.

The New York, Brooklyn and Indiana were the ships which participated in the shelling today. Each shot was carefully calculated and the wig-way
signaled from the shore to the ships
where each shell fell and notified the gunners if they had the proper elevation.

General Shafter signalled the fleet
that "some of the shells fell in the bay
and some in the city. The latter do not appear to do great damage."

Struck a Church.
Comment on this subject was changed
immediately by a message saying:
"The last shot struck St. Nicholas
church, where powder was stored, blowing up the same and doing great damage."

The bombardment was closed at General Shafter's request, as he was about
to send a flag of truce into the city,
to demand its surrender for the third and last time.

The effect of the shells when they did
hit can easily be imagined when it is known that each of them carries 250
pounds of explosives and travels 935
feet per second. When such a missile lands at a distance of four and a half
miles from the muzzle to the city it occupies 22 1/2 seconds in its flight.

Four shells during the bombardment
ignited fires in different parts of the
city, proving the feasibility of burning
the place by using the guns on the fleet
alone.

It was strange to see our soldiers repairing a locomotive on the railroad
track running along the beach, while
the strokes of a slow clock, the guns were fired and sent shell screaming over the men at work.

Death must have come to many in the
city by reason of the shelling, but it is impossible to do more now than sur-
mise as to the extent of the mortality.

AWFUL RAIN OF SHELLS.

Number of Shots Fired by the Oregon
Into the Spanish Squadron.
Playa del Este, Guantanamo Bay,
July 13.—Some idea of the awful rain
of shells poured into the doomed Spanish squadron on the morning of the July 3d by the pursuing American warships may be gained from the number
of shots fired from the battleship Oregon. This number also bears out the statement of the Spanish officers that
it was the fire from the second batteries
that drove their men from their guns
and forced the ships to beach.

From the time when Private O'Shay
of the battleship Oregon, fired the first
shot from her forward 6-pounder, until
the Cristobal Colon turned toward the shore, the Oregon fired 1,776 shells. Of

these 1,070 were from her 6-pounders.
The big 13-inch guns were fired 34
times, the 8-inch guns 28 times and the 6-inch 24 times. The 1-pounders were fired 20 times.

The destruction by some of the shots
was fearful. One 8-inch shell, which penetrated the turret of the Almirante Oquendo exploded and killed every person inside, blowing some to pieces.

NO DECISION.

But Sagasta Knows of No Remedy but
Peace.

London, July 13.—The Madrid correspondent of The Daily Mail says:
"Senor Sagasta, on being asked whether
a decision had been taken regarding
peace, replied: 'No, but what remedy
can there be but to make peace?'"

"The ministerialists assert the regular army in Cuba does not object to a
conclusion of peace, but that the 20,000
volunteers are determined to continue
the war."

Situation Unchanged.

Hong Kong, July 13.—The British
gunboat Plover, which left Manila on Sunday morning, has arrived here. She reports that at the time of leaving there
was no change in the situation. Admiral Dewey was awaiting the arrival
of General Merritt. The insurgents
were firing nightly on the Spaniards
and the blockade had finally been rendered effective.

YELLOW FEVER.

The Disease in Towns Adjacent to Camp
McCalla.

Cuba, July 13.—The known presence of
yellow fever at Caimero, Guantanamo
and other towns in the vicinity of Camp
McCalla and along the coast has resulted in the establishment of the strictest
quarantine.

Hereafter no communication will be allowed with the north side of the bay
and no one will be permitted to land
from vessels entering the harbor here
without a special permit from the commanding officer. This may result in considerable inconvenience to the newspaper dispatch boats. It also cuts off
communication with the insurgent
forces around Guantanamo under the command of General Perez and the regiment of Colonel Thomas.

The rules will also be rigidly enforced
at Camp McCalla, although the general
health of the American marines is remarkably good.

LETTERS FROM HOME.

Postoffice of the Invading Army in Cuba.
CAPTAIN CONCAS ALIVE.

Was Reported Killed, But Is Wounded
and a Prisoner on the Solace.

Washington, July 13.—Admiral Sampson telegraphed to the department yesterday that Captain Concas of the Spanish navy, who was reported to have been killed in the destruction of the Spanish squadron, is alive, wounded and on the hospital ship Solace. This officer is well known in the United States, having brought the Columbian carnivals across the Atlantic and to Chicago for exhibition at the World's Fair. He was very popular at the time, but lost the regard of a good many of his American admirers, when, just before the outbreak of the war with Spain, he delivered before the geographical society in Madrid a bitter diatribe directed against the personal qualities of the American people.

Purchasing More Vessels.

Washington, July 13.—Negotiations are still in progress between the war department and ship owners looking to the acquisition by the government of additional vessels, particularly on the Atlantic coast. The activity in this direction would seem to indicate that no
time is to be lost in making preparations for future expeditions when the campaign against Santiago comes to an end. It was formally announced yesterday that the department had bought the steamship Romanian of the Allan line and also the powerful seagoing tug Britannia.

To Be Taken to Annapolis.

Portsmouth, N. H., July 13.—The auxiliary cruiser St. Louis, which brought the Spanish prisoners into this port, is expected to leave for Annapolis today with Admiral Cervera and the other Spanish officers who have been ordered taken to that station for confinement as prisoners of war.

Spanish Loan.

Madrid, July 11, via Bayonne, France,
July 13.—The government issued yesterday a loan of 500,000,000 pesetas in treasury bonds at 5 per cent, of which amount the bank of Spain takes 300,- 000,000 pesetas.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, July 13.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows:
Available cash balances $231,812,861;
gold reserve $172,643,085.

REGIMENTAL CANTEENS.

They Are a Part of the Army Regulations.

Chickamanga National Military Park,
Ga., July 13.—The departure of the recruits of the First brigade, First division First corps to join their respective regiments at Charleston, constituted the only move here yesterday except that of the ambulance company for the First brigade.

General Brooke has received countless letters from ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in all parts of the country urging the closing of canteens. Finding it impossible to reply to these letters he has made the following statement to the press:

No intoxicants are sold in canteens.
Beer only is on sale in limited quantities, no one being able to obtain an excess. No soldier is required to serve as salesman or in any other capacity in these stores. The articles sold are mainly cigars, tobacco and light forms of food. The store is a regimental affair, managed by the regiment, and all profits go to the use of the company. These canteens are, by army regulations, a part of the army, and General Brooke has no authority to close them. He has, however, ordered close supervision of all of them. There has been no drunk-ness originating with the canteens and very little from any quarter, except as the moonshiners have made secret
sales of whisky.

Rev. J. L. Hill Creates a Sensation and Resigns.

Princeton, Ky., July 13.—Rev. J. L.
Hill has created a profound sensation
here by preaching a sermon on Christian union and denouncing all church creeds. Rev. Hill is pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, has the largest congregation in Princeton, and is a descendant of the celebrated Hill family who were pioneers in the establishment of the Cumberland church in Kentucky and Tennessee. He has handed in his resignation as pastor and will enter the evangelistic field, possibly under the auspices of the Christian church.

Buffalo, N. Y. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great blood-maker and
corrects the impaired digestion, makes the
liver active and the blood pure. Any medicine dealer who offers you something else
said to be "just as good" is thinking about his pocketbook and not about your health.

"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription' with
wonderful results," writes Mrs. Annie M. Norris, of Equinunk, Wayne Co., Pa. "I had
'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me."

now be foolhardy enough to make the
attempt.

The Cubans, under General Calixto
Garcia, took Caiman without opposition Monday night, and have entrench-
ments on either side of the road. The Americans are now in position to strike
the enemy on the left flank and roll it
up, making the Spanish entrenchments
north of the city untenable.

of this flank, has been busy during the
existence of the truce in doubling back
threatened. Most of General Ran-
dolph's guns will be located upon the
heights in the center of General Law-
ton's new position where they command
the town.

The Capron and Hanes batteries on
the right have succeeded in tearing up
the emplacements for a "palm" battery
into several blockhouses on salients, but
the shots directed at the Spaniards in
the trenches did not appear to have
in five minutes the trenches at every
flash of our guns and drop before the
shell exploded.

HANGS FIRE.

Spanish Cabinet Crisis—No One Desires
to Serve.
London, July 13.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: "The
crisis hangs fire. The ministers still
conservatives are not prepared to accept
office, and it is hard to imagine a liberal cabinet without an undisputed

liberal leader. The logical conclusion
responsibility of deciding whether or

the President's Instructions.

Washington, July 13.—The impression prevailed in official circles yester-
day that the flag of truce set in the
be very broad in view of the injunction
the president laid upon General Shafter
to accept nothing less than unconditional surrender, but it is supposed that
time may be consumed through the indulgence of General Shafter in allowing the Spanish commander to communicate by cable with Captain General Blanco in the effort to obtain his
assent to the surrender. General Toral
vindictive abuse heaped upon the un-
fortunate naval commander, Cervera,
for surrendering at all, so that he probably will be bound by the direction of
Blanco in his own case.

speedy fall of Santiago, though many
emphasize that the nest will be found
empty and the birds flown when the American troops make their entry into
case, it may be fairly claimed that the prime object of the movement on Santiago, namely, the destruction of the Spanish squadron having been achieved,
the campaign, as a whole, has been successful.

General Miles' report indicated that he had found unexpected physical difficulties to contend with, and is appar-
made by the army under the conditions
prevailing. He has not assumed command.

Mines to Be Removed.

The most important result of the cabinet deliberations yesterday was the result to remove the mines which guard
all coast ports. Many military men
earnest in their demand for the re-
clamoring for protection at the very
first rumor of the presence of a hostile
gunboat or cruiser off their coast.

Before the war began our government
accumulated a stock of coal at St.
Thomas, West Indies. Twice since we
broke out the United States has availed
of this coal, once to supply the Minneapolis and once the Montgomery, but as
port and took only enough coal to carry
had been no breach of neutrality.

It appears that there is now a disposi-
tion exhibited by the Danish authorities
to prevent the United States ships from
using this coal and as there is no question of their right to lay down this rule
the coal itself probably will be let alone.

No Peace Overtures.

Although the statement has been repeated day after day that no overtures
more in view of the express denial given
at the state department to so much of
the stories emanating from European
sources as seek to create the impression
that the United States government or
made any move in this direction. The
first overtures in the direction of peace
must come from Spain, directly or indirectly.

ANXIOUS TO MOVE.

Troops at Camp Alger Chafing Under Their Inactivity.

Washington, July 13.—The hardships of the soldier's life at Camp Alger have been ameliorated somewhat by the cool weather which now prevails, making the daily drills less arduous. The men still chafe under the inactivity of camp

life and are anxious, one and all to go to the front. Many of the officers, urged by their men, are making use of what influence they can bring to bear to have their regiments sent to more active fields. The Sixth Pennsylvania especially, is desirous of going to the front and the men are willing that they should be ordered to the Philippines, Hawaii or Cuba.

HAVANA CUT OFF.

Cable Connecting Santiago With Havana
Has Been Severed.

Playa del Este, Guantanamo Bay,
July 13.—Captain Young of the Hist, commanding one expedition composed of the Hist, Hornet and Wampatuck, while off Santa Cruz succeeded in cutting the cable connecting Havana with Santiago via Cienfuegos, Trinidad, Tanas and Manzanillo.

Under cover Captain Young went in facing superior forces, and located the landing place of the cable. He remained in hiding until daylight and then cut the cable 15 miles southeast of Santa Cruz.

Bids Asked For Floating Docks.

Washington, July 13.—The navy department has asked for bids for two floating docks, the two to cost not exceeding $250,000, as recently provided by congress. Chief Engineer of the bureau of yards and docks, has been very anxious to get some of these floating structures, in order to send them down to the gulf, and possibly to Cuba, where our cruisers, gunboats and auxiliary craft could be docked in them without the necessity of sending the ships to northern docks.

Heard Santiago Had Capitulated.

Rome, July 13.—The Tribune of this city publishes an undated Kingston, Jamaica, dispatch received last night,
asserting that the city of Santiago de Cuba has capitulated.

Fell at Santiago.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 13.—Information has been received here to the effect that among the American soldiers who fell in the battle at Santiago was Webster Underwood of this county, who enlisted early in the war.

Comte Esterhazy Arrested.

Paris, July 13.—Major Comte Fernan-dus Esterhazy, the alleged author of the Bordereau in the Dreyfus case, has been arrested. Madame Pays, his mistress, has also been placed under arrest.

Sentenced to Hang.

Stanford, Ky., July 13.—George
Stephenson has been sentenced to hang
Aug. 18, for the murder of Joe Tilford
at Crab Orchard, July 4.

THE NAVY'S PROBLEM

Best Manner of Bombard-
ing a City Over
Hill Tops.

By the Brooklyn, Indiana
and Texas at Santi-
ago de Cuba.

ARMY SIGNAL MEN

fect of Each Shot In the Range Find-
ing Test at Santiago—Navy Could Destroy the City Without the Aid of the
Army—It Is Believed Many Were Killed
In the City—Church Filled With Am-
munition Demolished.

Jamaica, July 13.—The United States
navy has the following problem presented to it: What is the best manner
of effectively bombarding a city distant
from view by a range of hills 250 feet
high at its lowest part? The problem
has been satisfactorily solved. So, if
the army hereafter never fired a shot
and merely guarded the roads, the navy
could make Santiago untenable, if indeed, it did not totally destroy it in a
few days.

Sunday and yesterday the sea was
calmer than usual, so the opportunity
for good practice was afforded. In pursuance of General Shafter's request,
Commodore Schley, Rear Admiral
Sampson being absent at Guantanamo,
at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon,
ranged the Brooklyn, Indiana and Tex-
as within 500 yards of the shore, at a
point almost due south of the city of Santiago, distant a little over four and
mile apart.

The army signal men were on the
beach opposite the ships and also on the
crest of a hill overlooking both the ships
the results of each shot, telling the
gunners if the shell was aimed too high
or too low, or not in line.

Sunday's practice was good, but it
was better today, when the firing was
opened by the New York, which returned from Guantanamo bay during the night.

The New York, Brooklyn and Indiana were the ships which participated
carefully calculated and the wig-way
signalled from the shore to the ships
where each shell fell and notified the
gunners if they had the proper elevation.

General Shafter signalled the fleet
that "some of the shells fell in the bay
appear to do great damage."

Struck a Church.

Comment on this subject was changed
immediately by a message saying:
"The last shot struck St. Nicholas
church, where powder was stored, blowing up the same and doing great damage."

The bombardment was closed at General Shafter's request, as he was about
to send a flag of truce into the city, to demand its surrender for the third and last time.

The effect of the shells when they did
pounds of explosives and travels 925
feet per second. When such a missile
lands at a distance of four and a half
miles from the muzzle to the city it occupies 22 1/2 seconds in its flight.

Four shells during the bombardment
ignited fires in different parts of the
city, proving the feasibility of burning
the place by using the guns on the fleet
alone.

It was strange to see our soldiers re-
pairing a locomotive on the railroad
like the strokes of a slow clock, the guns were fired and sent screaming
over the men at work.

Death must have come to many in the
city by reason of the shelling, but it is impossible to do more now than sur-

AWFUL RAIN OF SHELLS.

Playa del Este, Guantanamo Bay,
July 13.—Some idea of the awful rain
of shells poured into the doomed Span-
ish squadron on the morning of the
July 3d by the pursuing American war-
ships may be gained from the number
of shots fired from the battleship Oregon. This number also bears out the statement of the Spanish officers that
it was the fire from the second batteries
and forced the ships to beach.

From the time when Private O'Shany
of the battleship Oregon, fired the first
shot from her forward 6-pounder, until
the Cristolal Colon turned toward the shore, the Oregon fired 1,776 shells. Of

these 1,776 were from her 6-pounders.
The big 13-inch guns were fired 34
times, the 8-inch guns 28 times and the 6-inch 24 times. The 1-pounders were fired 20 times.

The destruction by some of the shots
was fearful. One 8-inch shell, which
penetrated the turret of the Almirante
Oquendo exploded and killed every per-

NO DECISION.

Peace.

London, July 13.—The Madrid correspondent of The Daily Mail says:
"Senor Sagasta, on being asked whether
a decision had been taken regarding
peace, replied: 'No, but what remedy
can there be but to make peace?'"

"The ministerialists assert the regular army in Cuba does not object to a
conclusion of peace, but that the 20,000
volunteers are determined to continue
the war."

Hong Kong, July 13.—The British
gunboat Plover, which left Manila on Sunday morning, has arrived here. She
reports that at the time of leaving there
was no change in the situation. Ad-
of General Merritt. The insurgents
were firing nightly on the Spaniards
dered effective.

McCalla.

Cuba, July 13.—The known presence of
yellow fever at Caimero, Guantanamo
and other towns in the vicinity of Camp
McCalla and along the coast has resulted
in the establishment of the strictest
quarantine.

Hereafter no communication will be
allowed with the north side of the bay
and no one will be permitted to land
from vessels entering the harbor here-
without a special permit from the com-
considerable inconvenience to the news-
paper dispatch boats. It also cuts off
forces around Guantanamo under the
command of General Perez and the regiment of Colonel Thomas.

The rules will also be rigidly enforced
at Camp McCalla, although the general
health of the American marines is remarkably good.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1898.

Republican State Convention.

The Indiana Republican State Convention will be held at Tomlinson Hall in Indianapolis on Wednesday and Thursday, August 3d and 4th, 1898. The convention will be composed of 1616 delegates, and promises to be one of the most interesting and enthusiastic conventions ever held in the State.

RAILROAD RATES.

Arrangements have been made with all railroads in Indiana for special rates to the Convention particulars of which will be announced later.

The REPUBLICAN is under obligations to Senator Fairbanks for public documents concerning affairs in Cuba.

SPAIN is beginning to realize that the better part of valor would have been to have avoided war with the United States.

Those fast vessels of the Spanish navy are not so rapid now. They had a time record and that was their chief recommendation.

The Illinois populists agreed to fuse with the democrats for one place on the ticket. They only asked for one of the nominations for trustee to the state university to be a populist, which was accepted by the democrats as a good bargain.

In the year ending June 30 the United States broke all records as to exports. More than $600,000,000 of merchandise, $300,000,000 of which were breadstuffs, were sent out from American ports, causing a balance in America's favor of more than $320,000,000. Thirty millions of silver were exported and in the period named $100,000,000 of gold were drawn into this country from Europe. It was a banner year for Uncle Sam's commercial business.

WOULD ADD STRENGTH TO THE TICKET.

Hon. Oscar H. Montgomery, of Seymour, is announced as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme court from the Second district. Mr. Montgomery is a lawyer with few, if any peers, is one of the best orators in the state and is a republican of the true sort. Montgomery's name on the state ticket would add strength to that ticket. We trust he may be nominated.—Columbus Star.

Information About Cuba.

The island of Cuba contains about 35,000,000 acres—7,000,000 more than the state of Kentucky. Of these only about 2,000,000 have been cultivated. Of the remainder 9,000,000 are natural pasture, and 17,000,000 are covered with virgin forests; 7,000,000 acres, about 20 per cent. are of inferior value as agricultural or timber lands. It will thus be seen that an acreage equal to the total of Kentucky is left to invite the efforts of capital and industry. Its general fertility is unsurpassed by any country in the world. Its sugar cane is the finest known, and yields from eight to twenty-five years without replanting. No such tobacco is raised on any other spot on earth. The trade with this splendid island, under good government, would be worth millions. It is no wonder Spain does not want to give up this lucious lemon. But fate has decreed that it shall fall to more appreciative hands.

MEDORA.

J. N. Smith has a new porch in front of his residence.

Hon. Allen Swope, of Seymour, was on our streets Monday.

Many of our young people paid a visit to Clifty cave Sunday.

Mrs. C. Sickle, proprietor of the Cottage House went to Seymour Monday afternoon.

Thomas Bennett, Thomas Newkirk and Orrill Starr of Sparksville, attended church at Medora Sunday night.

Charles Jones, of Elwood, who owns a farm near Grassy Creek, is here sojourning with friends and looking after property interests.

Charles Weddell, of Muncie, is here visiting friends after an absence of ten months. Charlie is working in the iron foundry at Muncie.

Mrs. J. A. Trautman, of Cincinnati, who used to be one of our earnest Sunday school workers, gave our Sunday school a very appropriate talk Sunday.

George H. Green who is working for A. Luedtke left for Seymour Monday where Mr. Luedtke has the contract for putting in the stone work for some bridges.

Died at her home about four miles west of Medora, Sunday, June 10, Miss Nettie Allsup. The deceased was well liked by her many friends who now mourn her loss. She was buried at Shoemaker's graveyard Sunday July 11.

Sunday, July 10, being the one-hundredth birthday of Dr. Hommel of this place, the citizens of Medora made him a present of a new suit of clothes and a rocking chair. Dr. Hommel is yet able to tend his garden and can get about with more ease than many men thirty years younger.

Married, at the residence of Rev. David Wright, Sunday evening, George W. Peck of this place and Miss Jean Edwards of Campbellsville, Ky. Just as Rev. Wright had said the words that made them man and wife, his own son Charlie, drove up and informed him that the lady accompanying him (formerly Miss Ruth Gillion) had that day become his wife.

IN STELLAR DEEPS.

In stellar deeps the midnight silence broods,
Worn with the day, the earth low lying sleeps,
While thought invades the eternal solitudes,
The stellar deeps.

Majestic move, great argosies of light,
Up from the nether voids unknown of men,
And cross the night.

A pathway sown with thistle down of stars,
A pathway white, as if thereon had trod
One whose winged feet shed luster in their flight,
Mounting to God,

Bridges the waste from rolling sphere to sphere,
Spans the blue seas of silence, shore to shore,
An arch of triumph o'er the primal dark
Forever more.

And with swift, curious hand throws open wide
Where shadows glide.

Immensely! Thy surges unconfin'd
But, the sense with strong, numbing shocks,
Hurling the little wreckage of the mind
Upon the rocks!

Thy tiny cockleshell, their helpless prey!
O reason, halt! Thy chart and compass vain
To find the way!

One envoy more. I wait upon the strand,
Faith finds safe anchorage, in sight of land,
In stellar deeps.

HER CAT IN HER POCKET.

Bismarck Travels In State Wherever His Mistress Goes.

A woman walked into the breakfast room of one of Chicago's swell hotels, dressed in traveling costume and carrying on her arm a cape of plaid cloth, which she hung over the chair next at table, disposing of it with some care, as if it might be of value.

Then she gave her attention to the menu and discussed a service of fruit while she waited for her order. She was roused from a pleasing study of her plate by a series of "Ohs!" and "Ahs!" and "What a darling!" and a hasty glance showed her a big white Angora cat seated gracefully on the vacant chair at her side.

"Oh, Bismarck, you dreadful cat!" she said, as the head waiter approached with a look in his eye that boded no good to the cat.

"I must put him out, madam," he said, with the assurance that goes with head waiters.

But his mistress clicked her fingers and the cat disappeared. Every eye was upon him, but no one saw him go. The waiter looked on the chair and under it, but pussy had vanished like a dream.

"Find the cat—he is in the picture somewhere," remarked the owner of the pet, as she buttered her toast. But the cat did not come back, and it was not until the woman had finished her breakfast and was leaving the table, with her traveling cape thrown over her arm, that the mystery of the animal's disappearance was explained, and pussy's head was allowed to peep from a capacious inside pocket in that cape.

"He has traveled in that pocket from the Pacific coast, and this is the first time he has given away his hiding place," said his mistress. "He will not bur for fear of being found, but he is near his journey's end, now and is getting tired. This cape is his exclusive property, and the pocket is his private car."—Chicago Times-Herald.

A little story that appeared not long ago in a Spanish comic paper is sent to us by correspondent to show how Spaniards thought of their navy before the present events. A Spanish admiral touching at some foreign port in the natural course of events calls on the governor of the local port, and on the return call the governor sees the one little gun of the Spanish man-of-war run out to fire a return salute, but at the critical moment the Spanish admiral rushes up and throws the gun, carriage and all, into the sea.

"What!" exclaims the distinguished visitor. "Why do you throw your government's guns overboard?" "Because," replies the admiral, "if the gun had gone off, it would have blown this whole ship to pieces! That means another decoration for me!" "How's that?" "For my courage in saving this ship from destruction."—London News.

Why Princess Appealed to the Cleverlands

"Shortly after the removal of the Cleveland family to Princeton an unmarried lady, a close friend of Mrs. Cleveland, was visiting her," writes a close friend of the former mistress of the White House in the Ladies' Home Journal. "One day while the two women were in the nursery with the three little Cleveland girls, the friend said jokingly to Mrs. Cleveland:

"Mercy me, Frances, how are you ever going to get all your daughters married off? You see from me that mamma could not do it in New York."

"Exactly," replied Mrs. Cleveland. "But what better place could there be than a college town like Princeton, I should like to know?"

What Happens When a Single Projectile Suddenly Bursts Into Two Hundred Separate Messengers of Death—Shells and Solid Shot.

The improvements in modern guns have embraced all calibers, from that of the small arm firing a projectile only one-third of an inch in diameter to the monster which sends a solid piece of steel 12 inches through and weighing over half a ton. Not only have the guns improved, but also all their accessories, especially powder and projectiles. The smokeless powder of the present has changed the conditions of war almost as much as modern armament.

Keeping step with these advances have been those made in the various classes of projectiles. Even the smallest of these, with its case hardened bullet, is far ahead of the old fashioned lead bullet used in the small arms of 30 years ago.

One of the most effective of modern projectiles is the shrapnel. It is one of the forms of case shot. The others were the old fashioned grape and canister. A case shot may be said to be a collection of missiles in a case, which breaks up either in the gun or at some point in flight, thus setting free its death dealing particles.

As soon as the case is broken each of these particles goes on a separate path, and it's a sorry day for the man struck by one of them. All of these falling upon a piece of level ground would mark out an irregular oval, whose area varies with differing conditions. It has been found that the best point to burst the shrapnel is about six yards above and 50 in front of the enemy.

Colonel Shrapnel of the British service first invented shrapnel in 1803. This early form consisted simply of a spherical shell filled with bullets and a bursting charge of powder in the spaces between. This was a crude invention, which scattered the fragments too much and was liable to go off when not expected and not so when desired. This form was improved upon during our civil war, and the modern shrapnel can be considered the most dangerous of all life destroying projectiles. It consists of three parts—the tube, the base and the head. The powder charge is in the base, which is firmly attached to the body either by electric welding or by screwing. Leading from the base through the center of the body is a tube which is also filled with powder, which is ignited by the fuse at the point of the shrapnel and carries the fire to the main charge. Between 200 and 300 bullets rest upon a diaphragm just over the powder charge. These are held in place by a matrix of rosin which is melted and poured upon the bullets when in place. A skeleton case of cast iron containing receptacles for each bullet is sometimes used instead of the rosin.

The head is put on in the same manner as the base, and when the fuse is inserted the projectile is ready for use. Some shrapnels have the bursting charge in the head instead of the base. The fuse used is rather complicated, but the United States has as good a one as there is. It is a time fuse and in actual test has shown its reliability.

It can readily be seen that one great objection to the shrapnel is its high cost. The fuse alone costs about $2.50. The same gun is usually supplied with three types of ammunition—the solid shot, the shell and the shrapnel. Some batteries are also supplied with canister for use at close quarters. The bullets in the canister have a wider dispersion, because the case breaks up in the gun. Canister was used to repel the famous charge led by the Confederate general Pickett at Gettysburg. A perfect hail of missiles swept the slope leading up to Cemetery Hill, against whose destructive effects human valor was of no avail.

The shell is used to destroy inanimate objects as well as animate ones. It consists of a hollow cast iron shell, with a fuse and bursting charge of powder. The famous shot fired during the cutting of the cables at Cienfuegos is a good example of its use. The Spaniards having taken refuge in and behind a lighthouse, a shell was fired by one of our ships, which, striking it fairly, burst and utterly destroyed the structure, killing many of the soldiers.

But against men in battle formation the shrapnel is the more effective. It sends a perfect shower of missiles which, falling in the midst of a company, would almost annihilate it. Many tests have been made to show this.

Shrapnels fired from a gun a mile away in one instance and a mile and two-thirds in the other were made to strike a board target one inch thick. The fuses were set off by the contact and burst the projectile into 200 or 300 parts, each of which was capable of dealing death to any living thing in its path. Screens were placed at indicated distances behind the target. These may be considered as representing a battalion of infantry in column of companies. From the number of hits upon all of them the efficiency of shrapnel fire against close order formation may be judged.

In one shot 152 hits were made by a single shrapnel. In another 215 hits are recorded, but these are not so well scattered. Imagine, then, the effect of a well placed shrapnel upon a group of men such as is here represented.

The reader can readily understand why wars are now waged at greater distances and why hand to hand conflicts are almost unheard of.—New York Herald.

WAS SHOT TO DEATH

Hallock Rice Is Killed by the Patrick Brothers.

Paintsville, Ky., July 12.—Hallock Rice, son of John Rice, was shot three times and instantly killed at Oil Springs, this county, by Sam Patrick and Reuben Patrick, sons of Payne Patrick. The trouble was caused by a quarrel over a girl. Reuben Patrick was arrested, but Sam took a horse and fled, with the sheriff and posse in hot pursuit. Patrick is heavily armed, and will resist arrest. The Patricks and the Rices are the largest families in the county.

Will Continue the Struggle.

Paris, July 13.—The officials of the Spanish embassy here communicated to the press yesterday a dispatch from Madrid, declaring it came from an authoritative source. It set forth in substance that although Spain was "only fighting in order to maintain her right to repel unjust aggression," she will continue the struggle "until she obtains an honorable peace, whatever sacrifice may be necessary to attain this end."

Dangers From Violent Exercise.

There is considerable diversity of opinion as to the safety with which women may indulge in violent exercise in view of possible injury. As regard the heart, there appears to be but one opinion—namely, that that organ, accustomed to a quiet life, may be dangerously and permanently crippled by the excessive strain in athletic sports. Experience in medical practice, says an eminent authority, teaches that the patient with a weak heart must be extremely cautious in his exercises, and the demonstration of a dilatation of the healthy heart under sudden, violent, exhausting effort which has been made was of a surprising nature. Many clinical observers in Germany and in this country have detected by percussion and observation of the changes in the heart beats that there is under strain and exertion considerable dilatation, which continues for a shorter or longer time after the exertion is over. Ocular proof of this has been afforded by the Roentgen rays. This shows not only the need of caution by those in good health, but more particularly so in the case of those who suffer from any weakness, constitutional or otherwise, in this organ.—New York Ledger.

Human Freedom.

For the whole of the enormous advance in the condition of the laboring man the basis was laid, once for all, by the gospel. This was in its original form and in its continuing purpose, the charter of human freedom, and the two modes by which it most conspicuously asserted itself in the arduous process of social regeneration were first the gradual elevation of woman and next the mitigation and eventual abolition of slavery.—Gladstone.

In the Market.

Mr. Busy Body—If you hang those turkeys by the feet, you will keep them longer.

Mr. Butcher Business—That ain't what I'm trying to do. I don't want to keep them any longer. I want to sell 'em.—Harlem Life.

The only soap which the Hindoos of the orthodox type employ is made entirely of vegetable products. But soap is little used in India, being almost an unknown luxury with the natives.

They Wallowed.

"A Boston man and myself," says a Chicago newspaper man, "were once the guests of a Kentucky family. The staple articles of diet there are corn dogs, baked in the ashes of the open fireplace, and bacon. Butter is practically unknown. It is not a grazing section. Our hostess, with evident pride, brought out for our delectation on the occasion referred to a small piece of butter. It had been bought months before in a far-away city and was quite superannuated and very self assertive. Both of us shed. The Boston man, forgetting the fate of Ananias, said he 'never used butter,' and I echoed his statement. The good woman evidently was disappointed. Pointing to a platter of bacon swimming in grease, she said, 'I allow you 'uns will oblige me, then, by wallerin' yer wallows in the dope.' We immediately 'wallowed'."

Republican State Convention.

The Indiana Republican State Convention will be held at Tomlinson Hall in Indianapolis on Wednesday and Thursday, August 3d and 4th, 1898. The convention will be composed of 1616 delegates, and promises to be one of the most interesting and enthusiastic conventions ever held in the State.

Those fast vessels of the Spanish navy are not so rapid now. They had a time record and that was their chief recommendation.

The delegates to the national republican league are arriving in large numbers at Omaha. It will be more largely attended than any former meeting of the league.

The Illinois populists agreed to fuse with the democrats for one place on the ticket. They only asked for one of the nominations for trustee to the state university to be a populist, which was accepted by the democrats as a good bargain.

The democrats of Illinois nominated a state ticket at Springfield Tuesday. They endorse the Chicago platform and acknowledge the leadership of W. J. Bryan and anticipated his nomination in 1900. They selected two sound money democrats as members of the state central committee.

In the year ending June 30 the United States broke all records as to exports. More than $600,000,000 of merchandise, $300,000,000 of which were breadstuffs, were sent out from American ports, causing a balance in America's favor of more than $320,000,000. Thirty millions of silver were exported and in the period named $100,000,000 of gold were drawn into this country from Europe. It was a banner year for Uncle Sam's commercial business.

WOULD ADD STRENGTH TO THE TICKET.

Information About Cuba.

The island of Cuba contains about 35,000,000 acres—7,000,000 more than the state of Kentucky. Of these only about 2,000,000 have been cultivated. Of the remainder 9,000,000 are natural pasture, and 17,000,000 are covered with virgin forest; 7,000,000 acres, about 20 per cent. are of inferior value as agricultural or timber lands. It will thus be seen that an acreage equal to the total of Kentucky is left to invite the efforts of capital and industry. Its general fertility is unsurpassed by any country in the world. Its sugar cane is the finest known, and yields from eight to twenty-five years without replanting. No such tobacco is raised on any other spot on earth. The trade with this splendid island, under good government, would be worth millions. It is no wonder Spain does not want to give up this lucious lemon. But fate has decreed that it shall fall to more appreciative hands.

IN STELLAR DEEPS.

In stellar deeps the midnight silence broods;
Worn with the day, the earth low lying sleeps;
While thought invades the eternal solitudes,
The stellar deeps.

Majestic move, great argosies of light,
Up from the ether voids unknown of men,
And cross the night.

A pathway worn with thistle down of stars,
A pathway white, as if thereon had trod
One whose winged feet shed luster in their flight,
Mounting to God,

Bridges the waste from rolling sphere to sphere,
Spans the blue seas of silence, shore to shore,
An arch of triumph o'er the primal dark
Forever more.

I tremble as a child that finds a door
And with swift, curious hand throws open wide
Into a vast, unpeopled corridor,
Where shadows glide.

Immensely! Thy surges unconfined
Buffet the sense with strong, benumbing shocks,
Hurting the little wreckage of the mind
Upon the rocks!

O thought, return! The engulfing billows toss
Thy tiny cockleshell, their helpless prey!
O reason, halt! Thy chart and compass vain
To find the way!

One envoy more. I wait upon the strand,
And while my soul her awesome vigil keeps
Faith finds safe anchorage, in sight of land,
In stellar deeps—

Bismarck Travels In State Wherever His Mistress Goes.

A woman walked into the breakfast room of one of Chicago's swell hotels, dressed in traveling costume and carrying on her arm a cape of plaid cloth, which she hung over the chair next at table, disposing of it with some care, as if it might be of value.

Then she gave her attention to the menu and discussed a service of fruit while she waited for her order. She was roused from a pleasing study of her plate by a series of "Ohs!" and "Ahs!" and "What a darling!" and a hasty glance showed her a big white Angora cat seated gracefully on the vacant chair at her side.

"Oh, Bismarck, you dreadful cat!" she said, as the head waiter approached with a look in his eye that boded no good to the cat.

"I must put him out, madam," he said, with the assurance that goes with head waiters.

But his mistress clicked her fingers and the cat disappeared. Every eye was upon him, yet no one saw him go. The waiter looked on the chair and under it, but pussy had vanished like a dream.

"Find the cat—he is in the picture somewhere," remarked the owner of the pet, as she buttered her toast. But the cat did not come back, and it was not until the woman had finished her breakfast and was leaving the table, with her traveling cape thrown over her arm, that the mystery of the animal's disappearance was explained, and pussy's head was allowed to peep from a capacious inside pocket in that cape.

"He has traveled in that pocket from the Pacific coast, and this is the first time he has given away his hiding place," said his mistress. "He will not purr for fear of being found, but he is near his journey's end now and is getting tired. This cape is his exclusive property, and the pocket is his private car."—Chicago Times-Herald.

"Because," replies the admiral, "if the gun had gone off, it would have blown this whole ship to pieces! That means another decoration for me!"

Why Princeton Appealed to the Cleveland

"Shortly after the removal of the Cleveland family to Princeton an unmarried lady, a close friend of Mrs. Cleveland, was visiting her," writes a close friend of the former mistress of the White House in the Ladies' Home Journal. "Exactly," replied Mrs. Cleveland. "But what better place could there be than a college town like Princeton, I should like to know?"

MODERN SHRAPNEL.

What Happens When a Single Projectile Suddenly Bursts Into Two Hundred Separate Messengers of Death—Shells and Solid Shot.

The improvements in modern guns have embraced all calibers, from that of the small arm firing a projectile only one-third of an inch in diameter to the monster which sends a solid piece of steel 12 inches through and weighing over half a ton. Not only have the guns improved, but also all their accessories, especially powder and projectiles. The smokeless powder of the present has changed the conditions of war almost as much as modern armament.

Keeping step with these advances have been those made in the various classes of projectiles. Even the smallest of these, with its case hardened bullet, is far ahead of the old fashioned lead bullet used in the small arms of 30 years ago.

One of the most effective of modern projectiles is the shrapnel. It is one of the forms of case shot. The others were the old fashioned grape and canister. A case shot may be said to be a collection of missiles in a case, which breaks up either in the gun or at some point in flight, thus setting free its death dealing particles.

As soon as the case is broken each of these particles goes on a separate path, and it is a sorry day for the man struck by one of them. All of these falling upon a piece of level ground would mark out an irregular oval, whose area varies with differing conditions. It has been found that the best point to burst the shrapnel is about six yards above and 50 in front of the enemy.

Colonel Shrapnel of the British service first invented shrapnel in 1803. This early form consisted simply of a spherical shell filled with bullets and a bursting charge of powder in the spaces between. This was a crude invention, which scattered the fragments too much and was liable to go off when not expected and not so when desired.

This form was improved upon during our civil war, and the modern shrapnel can be considered the most dangerous of all life destroying projectiles. It consists of three parts—the tube, the base and the head. The powder charge is in the base, which is firmly attached to the body either by electric welding or by screwing. Leading from the base through the center of the body is a tube which is also filled with powder, which is ignited by the fuse at the point of the shrapnel and carries the fire to the main charge. Between 200 and 300 bullets rest upon a diaphragm just over the powder charge. These are held in place by a matrix of resin which is melted and poured upon the bullets when in place. A skeleton case of cast iron containing receptacles for each bullet is sometimes used instead of the resin.

The head is put on in the same manner as the base, and when the fuse is inserted the projectile is ready for use. Some shrapnels have the bursting charge in the head instead of the base. The fuse used is rather complicated, but the United States has as good a one as there is. It is a time fuse and in actual test has shown its reliability.

It can readily be seen that one great objection to the shrapnel is its high cost. The fuse alone costs about $2.50. The same gun is usually supplied with three styles of ammunition—the solid shot, the shell and the shrapnel. Some batteries are also supplied with canister for use at close quarters. The bullets in the canister have a wider dispersion, because the case breaks up in the gun. Canister was used to repel the famous charge led by the Confederate general Pickett at Gettysburg. A perfect hail of missiles swept the slope leading up to Cemetery Hill, against whose destructive effects human valor was of no avail.

The shell is used to destroy inanimate objects as well as animate ones. It consists of a hollow cast iron shell, with a fuse and bursting charge of powder. The famous shot fired during the cutting of the cables at Cienfuegos is a good example of its use. The Spaniards having taken refuge in and behind a lighthouse, a shell was fired by one of our ships, which, striking it fairly, burst and utterly destroyed the structure, killing many of the soldiers.

But against men in battle formation the shrapnel is the more effective. It sends a perfect shower of missiles which, falling in the midst of a company, would almost annihilate it. Many tests have been made to show this.

Shrapnel fired from a gun a mile away in one instance and a mile and two-thirds in the other were made to strike a board target one inch thick. The fuses were set off by the contact and burst the projectile into 200 or 300 parts, each of which was capable of dealing death to any living thing in its path. Screens were placed at indicated distances behind the target. These may be considered as representing a battalion of infantry in column of companies. From the number of hits upon all of them the efficiency of shrapnel fire against close order formation may be judged.

In one shot 152 hits were made by a single shrapnel. In another 215 hits are recorded, but these are not so well scattered. Imagine, then, the effect of a well placed shrapnel upon a group of men such as is here represented.

The reader can readily understand why wars are now waged at greater distances and why hand to hand conflicts are almost unheard of.—New York Herald.

ABDALLAH'S LESSON.

Abdallah, please allow me to thank you, who dwell in Mecca, morning, noon and night. His voice to Allah raised in prayer country. Was he and humble, pure in mind.

Inspired of heaven he—not so his wife. She daily stood the market place within And bought and sold, nor deemed it any sin To mingle there in scenes of toil and strife.

While thus he prayed she earned the food he ate. But oft he reprimanded her. Said he: "Thou shouldst devote thy life to prayer, like me. Serve not thyself. Allah alone is great!"

At last his words sank deep into her heart. Said she: "While Allah shall my poor life spare My voice to him I'll raise in holy prayer. Henceforth of righteousness I am a part."

Abdallah's heart was glad, and side by side, They prayed until the sun in heaven was high. Then hunger to the pious man drew nigh And loudly he murmured to be satisfied.

Abdallah's wife still prayed. No food was there. The good man's soul was vexed. "Thy plan," he said, "That even piety must needs be fed, And man cannot exist alone by prayer."

And thus he learned "Faith, without works, is dead." And, profiting by what he learned, straightway He went to work and prospered from that day. And thanks to Allah gave for daily bread. —Arthur J. Burdick in Godley's Magazine.

Our hosts, with evident pride, brought out for our delectation on the occasion referred to a small piece of butter. It had been bought months before in a faraway city and was quite superannuated and very self assertive. Both of us shied. TORAL REFUSES THE THIRD SUMMONS TO SURRENDER.

Speedy Reduction of Santiago Expected—Expedition for Port Rico

SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN.
WASHINGTON, July 13.—Word has just been received here of another victory by Dewey in the Philippines. On July 7 he captured Grande Island, Subig bay and took 5,000 prisoners, 500 rifles, 40,000 rounds of ammunition and one Hotchkiss gun.

The third and last demand of Gen. Shafter for his unconditional surrender Gen. Toral yesterday morning sent a reply reiterating his determination to the last.

No general attack was made yesterday, a severe tropical rain-storm making it impossible to accomplish much. While this gave Gen. Toral a further breathing spell it also enabled the Americans to continue the strengthening of their lines and to bring up more artillery.

The American line now extends entirely around Santiago, almost to Caimeses is now held by Gen. Garcia's Cubans, so that the investment of the city is believed to be complete. It is undeniable that numerous bodies of Spanish soldiers have left Santiago, but it is not known how far this evacuation has gone.

Mej. Gen. Miles has now assumed personal command of the forces and promises to take Santiago within three days, unless Toral complies with the last demand for surrender.

Preparations now well under way for the Porto Rican expedition. Of the expedition of 25,000 men 10,000 will be regulars.

Owing to the destruction of Spain's naval power and the consequent safety of the United States from attack, orders have been given for the removal of the submarine mines in all the harbors where commerce is endangered.

A suggestion worthy of attention here as well as in the west has been made to the relief societies of Missouri by a volunteer from that state. In a letter from Camp Alger he says: "It might be well if the patriotic people would make a donation to our hospital in the way of reading matter. Any book or other publication sent to the regiment hospital will be placed there for the use of the patients. What time a soldier spends in a hospital his life is in greater danger than on a battle field, to my mind."

TORAL REFUSES THE THIRD SUMMONS TO SURRENDER.

Speedy Reduction of Santiago Expected—Expedition for Porto Rico

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Word has just been received here of another victory by Dewey in the Philippines. On July 7 he captured Grande Island, Subig bay and took 5,000 prisoners, 500 rifles, 40,000 rounds of ammunition and one Hotchkiss gun.

The third and last demand of Gen. Shafer for his unconditional surrender Gen. Toral yesterday morning sent a reply reiterating his determination to the last.

No general attack was made yesterday, a severe tropical rain-storm making it impossible to accomplish much. While this gave Gen. Toral a further breathing spell it also enabled the Americans to continue the strengthening of their lines and to bring up more artillery.

The American line now extends entirely around Santiago, almost to Calimenes is now held by Gen. Garcia's Cuban's, so that the investment of the city is believed to be complete. It is undeniable that numerous bodies of Spanish soldiers have left Santiago, but it is not known how far this evacuation has gone.

Maj. Gen. Miles has now assumed personal command of the forces and promises to take Santiago within three days, unless Toral complies with the last demand for surrender.

Preparations now well under way for the Porto Rican expedition. Of the expedition of 25,000 men 10,000 will be regulars.

MORROW'S DISCOVERY

Kidney Diseases That Once Were the Terror of Physicians, Robbed of Their Horror—When to Act.

Nature seldom strikes a severe blow at mankind without first giving warning. It is the neglect of the warning that first leads to disaster. The first warning, usually, that is given of impending danger of diabetes, Bright's disease or other kidney troubles, is a pain in the small of the back just over the kidneys. When the kidneys are not doing their work properly there is distress all over the body, because the blood remains impure, but, generally, a backache is one of the first and most certain symptoms of kidney disease.

Wise people give a pain of this character immediate attention. Since the discovery by John Morrow, the celebrated American chemist, of Morrow's Kidneys—those small, yellow tablets that contain nature's remedy for kidney disorders—this remedy has become a household article, and it is relied upon just as often to ward off terrible kidney complaints when they are threatened, as to cure cases of long standing.

A recent case of interest in which Morrow's Kidneys quickly gave relief is that of W. H. Vivion, a well known milliner of 20 West Main street, Springfield, Ohio. He gratefully tells the following story:

"I was afflicted with pains in my back over the kidneys, and my general health was somewhat impaired. Whenever I attempted to lift anything the pain would become excruciating. I was unable to do my work, and I read of the many cases where relief had been made by Morrow's Kidneys and decided to try them. One box quickly relieved me entirely of the pains, and my health is much improved generally. Morrow's Kidneys are certainly a boon to suffering humanity."

Morrow's Kidneys are now on sale everywhere at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Morrow's Kidneys are always put up in yellow tablet form; none are genuine otherwise. If you cannot get them of your dealer, will be sent postpaid by the H. H. Medicine Co., Springfield, Ohio, upon receipt of price.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. W. Milhous.

Nature seldom strikes a severe blow at mankind without first giving warning. It is the neglect of the warning that first leads to disaster. The first warning usually, that is given of impending danger of diabetes, Bright's disease or other kidney troubles, is a pain in the small of the back just over the kidneys. When the kidneys are not doing their work properly there is distress all over the body, because the blood remains impure, but generally, a backache is one of the first and most certain symptoms of kidney disease.

When people give a pain of this character immediate attention. Since the discovery by John Morrow, the celebrated American chemist, of Morrow's Kidneys—those small, yellow tablets that contain nature's remedy for kidney disease—this remedy has become a household article, and it is relied upon just as often to avert terrible kidney complaints, when they are threatened, as to cure cases of long standing.

A recent case of interest in which Morrow's Kidneys relieved is that of Mr. J. H. Vinton, a well known milliner of 20 West Main Street, Springfield, Ohio. He gratefully tells the following story:

"I was afflicted with pains in my back over the kidneys, and my general health was somewhat impaired. Whenever I attempted to do anything the pain would become excruciating, that I would be compelled to stop. I read of Morrow's Kidneys and decided to try them. One box quickly relieved me entirely of the pains, and my health is much improved generally. Morrow's Kidneys are certainly a boon to suffering humanity."

Morrow's Kidneys are now on sale everywhere at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Morrow's Kidneys are always put up in yellow tablet form; none are genuine otherwise. If you cannot get them of your dealer, will be sent postpaid by the Herb Medicine Co., Springfield, Ohio, on receipt of price.

He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. W. Milhous.

Miraculous Benefit RECEIVED FROM Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

ELI P. BABCOCK, of Avoca, N. Y., a veteran of the 3rd N. Y. Artillery and for thirty years of the Babcock & Munsell Carriage Co., of Auburn, says: "I write to express my gratitude for the miraculous benefit received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I suffered for years, as result of my life, from sciatica which affected my heart in the worst form, my limbs swelled from the ankles up. I bloated until I was unable to button my clothing; had sharp pains about the heart, smothering spells and shortness of breath. For three months I was unable to lie down, and all the sleep I got was in an arm chair. I was treated by the best doctors but gradually grew worse. About a year ago I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and it saved my life as if by a miracle."

DEFIANT

STORMING OF CITY

Will Probably Be Commenced Today by the American Forces.

In the Vicinity of Camp McCalla, in Cuba.

Cable Between Santiago and Havana Has Been Cut by the Commander of the Spanish Cabinet Crisis Hangs Fire—Honor in Home that Santiago Has Capitulated—Happenings at Camps Alger and Chicomanga—Government Purchasing More Vessels and Asks for Bids for Floating Docks—Order Issued to Remove Mines From Harbors.

Before Santiago, via Playa del Este, Guantamano Bay, July 13.—General Toral sent out a reply yesterday to General Shafter's second demand for the unconditional surrender of Santiago, made by the latter Monday afternoon. In his reply General Toral referred to his refusal to accede to the American demand made on Sunday and again reiterated his determination to resist.

Notwithstanding this the American batteries did not open fire yesterday and the renewal of the bombardment will probably begin today. The siege guns landed Monday will be brought up as soon as possible. Torrents of rain have fallen drowning out the boys in the trenches and making the road almost impassable. The volunteers who are being hurried on to the front are being located along the right center in the positions which have been occupied by General Lawton's division, while the latter has moved forward ex-

When we read of a railroad wreck in which a hundred people are killed, we are filled with pity and horror. There are other dangers in this life a thousand times greater than that of the railroad wreck, only we do not have them brought so forcibly to our attention. Consumption does not kill a hundred people at once in one train. It does kill tens of thousands for every one that is killed by accident.

If a sufferer will resort to the right remedy before it is too late, consumption can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent. of all cases if taken in the earlier stages. It has maintained this record for thirty years. Many of those whom it has rescued from the verge of the grave have permitted their names, addresses, experiences and photographs to be printed in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This useful book is free, and any sufferer who wishes to investigate may procure it and write to the dealer who offers you something else said to be "just as good" is thinking about his pocketbook and not about your health.

"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription' with wonderful results," writes Mrs. Annie M. Norman, of Equinunk, Wayne Co., Pa. "I had consumption; the doctors said I'd die. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me."

The Cutans, under General Calixto Garcia, took Calmes without opposition Monday night, and have entrenchments on either side of the road. The Americans are now in position to strike the enemy on the left flank and roll it up, making the Spanish entrenchments north of the city untenable.

General Toral realizing the weakness of this flank, has been busy during the existence of the truce in doubling back with entrenchments and fixing his guns in the direction from which he is threatened. Most of General Randolph's guns will be located upon the heights in the center of General Lawton's new position where they command the town.

The Capron and Hanes batteries on the right have succeeded in tearing up the emplacements for a "palm" battery as it is called, and in plunging shells into several blockhouses on salients, but the shots directed at the Spaniards in the trenches did not appear to have much effect. Shrapnell was rapidly broken directly over the trenches, yet in five minutes the trenches were alive with the enemy. They would watch for the flash of our guns and drop before the shell exploded.

HANGS FIRE.

Spanish Cabinet Crisis—No One Desires to Serve. London, July 13.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: "The crisis hangs fire. The ministers still meet in council and the difficulties of retirement seem even greater than the difficulties of remaining in office. The conservatives are not prepared to accept office, and it is hard to imagine a liberal cabinet without an undisputed liberal leader. The logical conclusion is that Senator Sagasta must accept the responsibility of deciding whether or not to open peace negotiations."

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER. Shafter Can Accept Nothing Else Under the President's Instructions.

Washington, July 13.—The impression prevailed in official circles yesterday that the flag of truce sent in the Spanish lines at Santiago was still flying, and that negotiations continued looking to a surrender. The basis for these negotiations naturally could not be very broad in view of the injunction the president laid upon General Shafter to accept nothing less than unconditional surrender, but it is supposed that time may be consumed through the indulgence of General Shafter in allowing the Spanish commander to communicate by cable with Captain General Blanco in the effort to obtain his assent to the surrender. General Toral undoubtedly has before his eyes the vindictive abuse heaped upon the unfortunate naval commander, Cervera, for surrendering at all, so that he probably will be bound by the direction of Blanco in his own case.

Officials here have confidence in the speedy fall of Santiago, though many officers fear that the nest will be found empty and the birds flown when the American troops make their entry into the town. Still, should this be the case, it may be fairly claimed that the prime object of the movement on Santiago, namely, the destruction of the Spanish squadron having been achieved, the campaign, as a whole, has been successful.

General Miles' report indicated that he had found unexpected physical difficulties to contend with, and is apparently greatly pleased with the progress made by the army under the conditions prevailing. He has not assumed command. Mines to Be Removed. The most important result of the cabinet deliberations yesterday was the order to remove the mines which guard all coast ports. Many military men were opposed to yielding to the pressure of the commercial interests and some of them are predicting that not a few of the communities which have been so earnest in their demand for the removal of the mines will be frantically clamoring for protection at the very first rumor of the presence of a hostile gunboat or cruiser off their coast.

Before the war began our government accumulated a stock of coal at St. Thomas, West Indies. Twice since war broke out the United States has availed of this coal, once to supply the Minneapolis and once the Montgomery, but as each was bound for the nearest home port and took only enough coal to carry them there it was fairly assumed there had been no breach of neutrality.

It appears that there is now a disposition exhibited by the Danish authorities to prevent the United States ships from using this coal and as there is no question of their right to lay down this rule the coal itself probably will be let alone. No Peace Overtures. Although the statement has been repeated day after day that no overtures have yet been made to our government for peace it may bear repetition once more in view of the express denial given at the state department to so much of the stories emanating from European sources as seek to create the impression that the United States government or any of its representatives so far has made any move in this direction. The first overtures in the direction of peace must come from Spain, directly or indirectly.

ANXIOUS TO MOVE. Troops at Camp Alger Chafing Under Their Inactivity.

Washington, July 13.—The hardships of the soldier's life at Camp Alger have been ameliorated somewhat by the cool weather which now prevails, making the daily drills less arduous. The men still chafe under the inactivity of camp life and are anxious, one and all to go to the front. Many of the officers, urged by their men, are making use of what influence they can bring to bear to have their regiments sent to more active fields. The Sixtieth Pennsylvania especially, is desirous of going to the front and the men are willing that they should be ordered to the Philippines, Hawaii or Cuba.

HAVANA CUT OFF.

Cable Connecting Santiago With Havana Has Been Severed.

Playa del Este, Guantamano Bay, July 13.—Captain Young of the Hist, commanding one expedition composed of the Hist, Hornet and Wampatuck, while off Santa Cruz succeeded in cutting the cable connecting Havana with Santiago via Cienfuegos, Trinidad, Tamas and Manzanillo.

Under cover Captain Young went in, facing superior forces, and located the landing place of the cable. He remained in hiding until daybreak and then cut the cable 15 miles southeast of Santa Cruz.

Bids Asked For Floating Docks.

Washington, July 13.—The navy department has asked for bids for two floating docks, the two to cost not exceeding $250,000, as recently provided by congress. Chief Edickott of the bureau of yards and docks, has been very anxious to get some of these floating structures, in order to send them down to the gulf, and possibly to Cuba, where our cruisers, gunboats and auxiliary craft could be docked in them without the necessity of sending the ships to northern docks.

Heard Santiago Had Capitulated.

Rome, July 13.—The Tribuna of this city publishes an undated Kingston, Jamaica, dispatch received last night, affirming that the city of Santiago de Cuba has capitulated.

THE NAVY'S PROBLEM

Best Manner of Bombarding a City Over Hill Tops.

By the Brooklyn, Indiana and Texas at Santiago de Cuba.

Kept the Warships Posted as to the Effect of Each Shot In the Range Finding Test at Santiago—Navy Could Destroy the City Without the Aid of the Army—It Is Believed Many Were Killed In the City—Church Filled With Ammunition Demolished.

Off Aguadores, July 11, via Kingston, Jamaica, July 13.—The United States navy has the following problem presented to it: What is the best manner of effectively bombarding a city distant four and a half miles and concealed from view by a range of hills 250 feet high at its lowest part? The problem has been satisfactorily solved. So, if the army hereafter never fired a shot and merely guarded the roads, the navy could make Santiago untenable, if indeed, it did not totally destroy it in a few days.

Sunday and yesterday the sea was calmer than usual, so the opportunity for good practice was afforded. In pursuance of General Shafter's request, Commodore Schley, Rear Admiral Sampson being absent at Guantamano, ranged the Brooklyn, Indiana and Texas within 500 yards of the shore, at a point almost due south of the city of Santiago, distant a little over four and a half miles. The ships were about a mile apart.

Signal Men Watched the Effect. The army signal men were on the beach opposite the ships and also on the crest of a hill overlooking both the ships and the city. These men wig-wagged the results of each shot, telling the gunners if the shell was aimed too high or too low, or not in line.

Sunday's practice was good, but it was better today, when the firing was opened by the New York, which returned from Guantamano bay during the night.

The New York, Brooklyn and Indiana were the ships which participated in the shelling today. Each shot was carefully calculated and the wig-way signalled from the shore to the ships where each shell fell and notified the gunners if they had the proper elevation.

General Shafter signalled the fleet that "some of the shells fell in the bay and some in the city. The latter do not appear to do great damage."

Struck a Church. Comment on this subject was changed immediately by a message saying: "The last shot struck St. Nicholas church, where powder was stored, blowing up the same and doing great damage."

The bombardment was closed at General Shafter's request, as he was about to send a flag of truce into the city, to demand its surrender for the third and last time.

The effect of the shells when they did hit can easily be imagined when it is known that each of them carries 250 pounds of explosives and travels 925 feet per second. When such a missile lands at a distance of four and a half miles from the muzzle to the city it occupies 22 1/2 seconds in its flight.

Four shells during the bombardment ignited fires in different parts of the city, proving the feasibility of burning the place by using the guns on the fleet alone.

It was strange to see our soldiers repairing a locomotive on the railroad track running along the beach, while, like the strokes of a slow clock, the guns were fired and sent shell screaming over the men at work.

Death must have come to many in the city by reason of the shelling, but it is impossible to do more now than surmise as to the extent of the mortality.

AWFUL RAIN OF SHELLS.

Number of Shots Fired by the Oregon Into the Spanish Squadron.

Playa del Este, Guantamano Bay, July 13.—Some idea of the awful rain of shells poured into the doomed Spanish squadron on the morning of the July 3d by the pursuing American warships may be gained from the number of shots fired from the battleship Oregon. This number also bears out the statement of the Spanish officers that it was the fire from the second batteries that drove their men from their guns and forced the ships to beach.

From the time when Private O'Shay of the battleship Oregon, fired the first shot from her forward 6-pounder, until the Cristobal Colon turned toward the shore, the Oregon fired 1,776 shells. Of these 1,670 were from her 6-pounders. The big 13-inch guns were fired 34 times, the 8-inch guns 28 times and the 6-inch 24 times. The 1-pounders were fired 20 times.

The destruction by some of the shots was fearful. One 8-inch shell, which penetrated the turret of the Almirante Oquendo exploded and killed every person inside, blowing some to pieces.

NO DECISION.

But Sagasta Knows of No Remedy but Peace.

London, July 13.—The Madrid correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "Senator Sagasta, on being asked whether a decision had been taken regarding peace, replied: 'No, but what remedy can there be but to make peace?'"

"The ministerialists assert the regular army in Cuba does not object to a conclusion of peace, but that the 20,000 volunteers are determined to continue the war."

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Hong Kong, July 13.—The British gunboat Plover, which left Manila on Sunday morning, has arrived here. She reports that at the time of leaving there was no change in the situation. Admiral Dewey was awaiting the arrival of General Merritt. The insurgents were firing nightly on the Spaniards and the blockade had finally been rendered effective.

YELLOW FEVER.

The Disease in Towns Adjacent to Camp McCalla.

Playa del Este, Guantamano Bay, Cuba, July 13.—The known presence of yellow fever at Camero, Guantamano and other towns in the vicinity of Camp McCalla and along the coast has resulted in the establishment of the strictest quarantine.

Hereafter no communication will be allowed with the north side of the bay and no one will be permitted to land from vessels entering the harbor here without a special permit from the commanding officer. This may result in considerable inconvenience to the newspaper dispatch boats. It also cuts off communication with the insurgent forces around Guantamano under the command of General Perez and the regiment of Colonel Thomas.

The rules will also be rigidly enforced at Camp McCalla, although the general health of the American marines is remarkably good.

LETTERS FROM HOME.

No intoxicants are sold in cantenas. Beer only is on sale in limited quantities, no one being able to obtain an excess. No soldier is required to serve as salesman or in any other capacity in these stores. The articles sold are mainly cigars, tobacco and light forms of food. The store is a regimental affair, managed by the regiment, and all profits go to the use of the company. These cantenas are, by army regulations, a part of the army, and General Brooke has no authority to close them. He has, however, ordered close supervision of all of them. There has been no drunkenness originating with the cantenas and very little from any quarter, except as the moonshiners have made secret sales of whisky.

Rev. J. L. Hill Creates a Sensation and Resigns.

Princeton, Ky., July 13.—Rev. J. L. Hill has created a profound sensation here by preaching a sermon on Christian union and denouncing all church creeds. Rev. Hill is pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, has the largest congregation in Princeton, and is a descendant of the celebrated Hill family who were pioneers in the establishment of the Cumberland church in Kentucky and Tennessee. He has handed in his resignation as pastor and will enter the evangelistic field, possibly under the auspices of the Christian church.

POSTOFFICE OF THE INVADING ARMY IN CUBA.

Was Reported Killed, But Is Wounded and a Prisoner on the Solace.

Washington, July 13.—Admiral Sampson telegraphed to the department yesterday that Captain Concas of the Spanish navy, who was reported to have been killed in the destruction of the Spanish squadron, is alive, wounded and on the hospital ship Solace. This officer is well known in the United States, having brought the Columbian caravels across the Atlantic and to Chicago for exhibition at the World's Fair. He was very popular at the time, but lost the regard of a good many of his American admirers, just before the outbreak of the war with Spain, he delivered before the geographical society in Madrid a bitter diatribe directed against the personal qualities of the American people.

PURCHASING MORE VESSELS.

Washington, July 13.—Negotiations are still in progress between the war department and ship owners looking to the acquisition by the government of additional vessels, particularly on the Atlantic coast. The activity in this direction would seem to indicate that no time is to be lost in making preparations for future expeditions when the campaign against Santiago comes to an end. It was formally announced yesterday that the department had bought the steamship Roumanian of the Ailan Line and also the powerful seagoing tug Britannia.

TO BE TAKEN TO ANNAPOLIS.

Portsmouth, N. H., July 13.—The auxiliary cruiser St. Louis, which brought the Spanish prisoners into this port, is expected to leave for Annapolis today with Admiral Cervera and the other Spanish officers who have been ordered taken to that station for confinement as prisoners of war.

SPANISH LOAN.

Madrid, July 11, via Bayonne, France, July 13.—The government issued yesterday a loan of 500,000,000 pesetas in treasury bonds at 5 per cent, of which amount the bank of Spain takes 300,000,000 pesetas.

REGIMENTAL CANTENES.

They Are a Part of the Army Regulations.

Chickamauga National Military Park, Ga., July 13.—The departure of the recruits of the First brigade, First division First corps to join their respective regiments at Charleston, constituted the only move here yesterday except that of the ambulance company for the First brigade.

General Brooke has received countless letters from ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in all parts of the country urging the closing of cantenas. Finding it impossible to reply to these letters he has made the following statement to the press:

No intoxicants are sold in cantenas. Beer only is on sale in limited quantities, no one being able to obtain an excess. No soldier is required to serve as salesman or in any other capacity in these stores. The articles sold are mainly cigars, tobacco and light forms of food. Republican State Convention.

The Indiana Republican State Convention will be held at Tomlinson Hall in Indianapolis on Wednesday and Thursday, August 3d and 4th, 1898. The convention will be composed of 1616 delegates, and promises to be one of the most interesting and enthusiastic conventions ever held in the State.

RAILROAD RATES.

Arrangements have been made with all railroads in Indiana for special rates to the Convention particulars of which will be announced later.

THE REPUBLICAN is under obligations to Senator Fairbanks for public documents concerning affairs in Cuba.

Spain is beginning to realize that the better part of valor would have been to have avoided war with the United States.

Those fast vessels of the Spanish navy are not so rapid now. They had a time record and that was their chief recommendation.

The delegates to the national republican league are arriving in large numbers at Omaha. It will be more largely attended than any former meeting of the league.

The Illinois populists agreed to fuse with the democrats for one place on the ticket. They only asked for one of the nominations for trustee to the state university to be a populist, which was accepted by the democrats as a good bargain.

The democrats of Illinois nominated a state ticket at Springfield Tuesday. They endorse the Chicago platform and acknowledge the leadership of W. J. Bryan and anticipated his nomination in 1900. They selected two sound money democrats as members of the state central committee.

In the year ending June 30 the United States broke all records as to exports. More than $600,000,000 of merchandise, $300,000,000 of which were breadstuffs, were sent out from American ports, causing a balance in America's favor of more than $320,000,000. Thirty millions of silver were exported and in the period named $100,000,000 of gold were drawn into this country from Europe. It was a banner year for Uncle Sam's commercial business.

WOULD ADD STRENGTH TO THE TICKET.

Hon. Oscar H. Montgomery, of Seymour, is announced as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme court from the Second district. Mr. Montgomery is a lawyer with law, if any peers, is one of the best orators in the state and is a republican of the true sort. Montgomery's name on the state ticket would add strength to that ticket. We trust he may be nominated—Columbus Star.

Information About Cuba.

The island of Cuba contains about 35,000,000 acres—7,000,000 more than the state of Kentucky. Of these only about 2,000,000 have been cultivated. Of the remainder 9,000,000 are natural pasture, and 17,000,000 are covered with virgin forests; 7,000,000 acres, about 20 per cent. are of inferior value as agricultural or timber lands. It will thus be seen that an acreage equal to the total of Kentucky is left to invite the efforts of capital and industry. Its general fertility is unsurpassed by any country in the world. Its sugar cane is the finest known, and yields from eight to twenty-five years without replanting. No such tobacco is raised on any other spot on earth. The trade which this splendid island, under good government, would be worth millions. It is no wonder Spain does not want to give up this lucious lemon. But fate has decreed that it shall fall to more appreciative hands.

IN STELLAR DEEPS.

In stellar deeps the midnight silence broods; Worn with the day, the earth low lying sleeps, While thought invades the eternal solitudes, The stellar deeps.

Fleets, from a port beyond the explorer's ken, Majestic move, great argosies of light, Up from the ether voids unknown of men, And cross the night.

A pathway down with thistle down of stars, A pathway white, as if thereon had trod One whose winged feet shed luster in their flight, Mounting to God.

Bridges the waste from rolling sphere to sphere, Spans the blue seas of silence, shore to shore, An arch of triumph o'er the primal dark Forever more.

I tremble as a child that finds a door And with swift, curious hand throws open wide Into a vast, unpeopled corridor, Where shadows glide.

Immensity! Thy surges unconfin'd Buffet the sense with strong, benumbing shocks, Hurling the little wreckage of the mind Upon the rocks!

O thought, return! The engulfing billows toss Thy tiny cockleshell, their throned prey! O reason, halt! Thy chart and compass vain To find the way!

One envoy more, I wait upon the strand, And while my soul her awesome vigil keeps Faith finds safe anchorage, in sight of land, In stellar deeps.

HER CAT IN HER POCKET.

Bismarck Travels In State Wherever His Mistress Goes.

A woman walked into the breakfast room of one of Chicago's swell hotels, dressed in traveling costume and carrying on her arm a cape of plaid cloth, which she hung over the chair next at table, disposing of it with some care, as if it might be of value.

Then she gave her attention to the menu and discussed a service of fruit while she waited for her order. She was roused from a pleasing study of her plate by a series of "Ohs!" and "Ahs!" and "What a darling!" and a hasty glance showed her a big white Angora cat seated gracefully on the vacant chair at her side.

"Oh, Bismarck, you dreadful cat!" she said, as the head waiter approached with a look in his eye that boded no good to the cat.

"I must put him out, madam," he said, with the assurance that goes with head waiters.

But his mistress clicked her fingers and the cat disappeared. Every eye was upon him, yet no one saw him go. The waiter looked on the chair and under it, but pussy had vanished like a dream.

"Find the cat—he is in the picture somewhere," remarked the owner of the pet, as she buttered her toast. But the cat did not come back, and it was not until the woman had finished her breakfast and was leaving the table, with her traveling cape thrown over her arm, that the mystery of the animal's disappearance was explained, and pussy's head was allowed to peep from a capacious inside pocket in that cape.

"He has traveled in that pocket from the Pacific coast, and this is the first time he has given away his hiding place," said his mistress. "He will not purr for fear of being found, but he is near his journey's end now and is getting tired. This cape is his exclusive property, and the pocket is his private car."—Chicago Times-Herald.

"For Valor."

A little story that appeared not long ago in a Spanish comic paper is sent to us by correspondent to show how Spaniards thought of their navy before the present events. A Spanish admiral touching at some foreign port in the natural course of events calls on the governor of the local port, and on the return call the governor sees the little gun of the Spanish man-of-war run out to fire a return salute, but at the critical moment the Spanish admiral rushes up and throws the gun, carriage and all, into the sea.

"What!" exclaims the distinguished visitor. "Why do you throw your government's guns overboard?"

"Because," replies the admiral, "if the gun had gone off, it would have blown this whole ship to pieces! That means another decoration for me!"

"How's that?"

"For my courage in saving this ship from destruction."—London News.

Why Princeton Appealed to the Cleveland

"Shortly after the removal of the Cleveland family to Princeton an unmarried lady, a close friend of Mrs. Cleveland, was visiting her," writes a close friend of the former mistress of the White House in the Ladies' Home Journal. "One day while the two women were in the nursery with the three little Cleveland girls, the friend said jokingly to Mrs. Cleveland:

"Mercy me, Frances, how are you ever going to get all your daughters married off? You see from me that mamma could not do it in New York."

The shell is used to destroy inanimate objects as well as animate ones. It consists of a hollow cast iron shell, with a fuse and bursting charge of powder. The famous shot fired during the cutting of the cables at Cienfuegos is a good example of its use. The Spaniards having taken refuge in and behind a lighthouse, a shell was fired by one of our ships, striking it fairly, burst and utterly destroyed the structure, killing many of the soldiers.

But against men in battle formation the shrapnel is the more effective. It sends a perfect shower of missiles which, falling in the midst of a company, would almost annihilate it. Many tests have been made to show this.

Shrapnel fired from a gun a mile away in one instance and a mile and two-thirds in the other were made to strike a board target one inch thick. The fuses were set off by the contact and burst the projectile into 200 or 300 parts, each of which was capable of dealing death to any living thing in its path. Screens were placed at indicated distances behind the target. These may be considered as representing a battalion of infantry in column of companies. From the number of hits upon all of them the efficiency of shrapnel fire against close order formation may be judged.

In one shot 152 hits were made by a single shrapnel. In another 215 hits are recorded, but these are not so well scattered. Imagine, then, the effect of a well placed shrapnel upon a group of men such as is here represented.

MODERN SHRAPNEL.

What Happens When a Single Projectile Suddenly Bursts Into Two Hundred Separate Messengers of Death—Shells and Solid Shot.

The improvements in modern guns have embraced all calibers, from that of the small arm firing a projectile only one-third of an inch in diameter to the monster which sends a solid piece of steel 12 inches through and weighing over half a ton. Not only have the guns improved, but also all their accessories, especially powder and projectiles. The smokeless powder of the present has changed the conditions of war almost as much as modern armament.

Keeping step with these advances have been those made in the various classes of projectiles. Even the smallest of these, with its case hardened bullet, is far ahead of the old fashioned lead bullet used in the small arms of 30 years ago.

One of the most effective of modern projectiles is the shrapnel. It is one of the forms of case shot. The others were the old fashioned grape and canister. A case shot may be said to be a collection of missiles in a case, which breaks up either in the gun or at some point in flight, thus setting free its death dealing particles.

As soon as the case is broken each of these particles goes on a separate path, and it's a sorry day for the man struck by one of them. All of these falling upon a piece of level ground would mark out an irregular oval, whose area varies with differing conditions. It has been found that the best point to burst the shrapnel is about six yards above and 50 in front of the enemy.

Colonel Shrapnel of the British service first invented shrapnel in 1803. This early form consisted simply of a spherical shell filled with bullets and a bursting charge of powder in the spaces between.

This was a crude invention, which scattered the fragments too much and was liable to go off when not expected and not so when desired.

This form was improved upon during our civil war, and the modern shrapnel can be considered the most dangerous of all life destroying projectiles. It consists of three parts—the tube, the base and the head. The powder charge is in the base, which is firmly attached to the body either by electric welding or by screwing. Leading from the base through the center of the body is a tube which is also filled with powder, which is ignited by the fuse at the point of the shrapnel and carries the fire to the main charge. Between 200 and 300 bullets rest upon a diaphragm just over the powder charge. These are held in place by a matrix of rosin which is melted and poured upon the bullets when in place. A skeleton case of cast iron containing receptacles for each bullet is sometimes used instead of the rosin.

The head is put on in the same manner as the base, and when the fuse is inserted the projectile is ready for use. Some shrapnels have the bursting charge in the head instead of the base. The fuse used is rather complicated, but the United States has as good a one as there is. It is a time fuse and in actual test has shown its reliability.

It can readily be seen that one great objection to the shrapnel is its high cost. The fuse alone costs about $2.50. The same gun is usually supplied with three styles of ammunition—the solid shot, the shell and the shrapnel. Some batteries are also supplied with canister for use at close quarters. The bullets in the canister have a wider dispersion, because the case breaks up in the gun. Canister was used to repel the famous charge by the Confederate general Pickett at Gettysburg. A perfect hail of missiles swept the slope leading up to Cemetery Hill, against whose destructive effects human valor was of no avail.

The shell is used to destroy inanimate objects as well as animate ones. It consists of a hollow cast iron shell, with a fuse and bursting charge of powder. The famous shot fired during the cutting of the cables at Cienfuegos is a good example of its use. The Spaniards having taken refuge in and behind a lighthouse, a shell was fired by one of our ships, striking it fairly, burst and utterly destroyed the structure, killing many of the soldiers.

MORROW'S DISCOVERY

Nature seldom strikes a severe blow at mankind without first giving warning. It is neglect of the warning that first leads to disaster. The first warning, usually, that is given of impending danger of diabetes, Bright's disease or other kidney troubles, is a pain in the small of the back just over the kidneys. When the kidneys are not doing their work properly there is distress all over the body, because the blood remains impure; but generally, a backache is one of the first and most certain symptoms of kidney disease.

When people give a pain of this character immediate attention. Since the discovery by John Morrow, the celebrated American chemist, of Morrow's Kidneys—these small, yellow tablets that contain nature's remedy for kidney disorders—this remedy has become a household article, and it is relied upon just as often to avert terrible kidney complaints, as to cure those already threatened, as to cure cases of long standing.

When any of the symptoms of kidney irregularities appear, such as backache, nervousness, headache, irritable temper, pain in urinating, etc., it is best to take Morrow's Kidneys at once and ward off disease before it becomes firmly rooted.

A recent case of interest in which Morrow's Kidneys quickly gave relief is that of Dr. E. M. Callahan last Sunday. Dr. Jacob J. Edwards, of Walesboro, is visiting in the family of his uncle, Wm. I. Starnes.

John Ash and children were visiting in the family of his brother, Charles Ash, near Eclipse, the first of last week. Wm. Starnes and wife have returned from Paris, Jennings county, where they had a pleasant visit with the latter's brother, Rev. J. T. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist circuit.

Dan George, of Mooney, was robbed at his home on Thursday night of last week. He had just returned in a lively rig and started for his home from the gate, when he was struck a heavy blow under the eye by some one concealed just inside the gate. He fell to the ground unconscious and while in that condition, the fellow went through his pockets taking over $100.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. W. Milbous.

PEA RIDGE.

Charley Wright and Ru'h Gallion were married Sunday.

Miss Jessie Hall, of near Vallonia, is visiting relatives on the Ridge.

Miss Willie Empson, of Vallonia, has organized a music class at this place.

George Peck, of Medora, and a lady from Kentucky were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at the residence of David Wright.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. W. Milbous.
